TURNER!

"It is a picture which could not possibly have been painted by any other than the muster whose name it bears. Everything is Turneresque in it. The wonderful floor of the sea over which the gondolas and barges are gliding wherever their color is needed; the hazy air giorified by a rosy tinge that makes the architectural marbles still whiter; and, more than ail, that marveilous sky of cumulous clouds which, seen at the proper distance, become a perfect heaven of clouds—ail these things mark the work as that of the most passionately original artist of the age. Its only fault is the fault which Turner proudly calls 'my fault,' that of indistinctuess."—New York Tribune.

"There is only one other 'Turner' in this country."-New York Times. "It is not quite so large as 'The Slave Ship,' which is now one of the treasures in Mr. John Taylor Johnston's collection, but it is quite as characteristic a work as that, and will, no doubt, attract great attention."—Evening Post.

"The exhibition altogether is of more than average excellence. The paintings have not been newly framed as an attraction, and for favor have to depend on merit alone. That is a severe test, and the collection bears it weil."—Brooklyn Eagle.

Now on exhibition, free day and evening, at the LEAVITT Art Rooms, $17 Broadway.
